

Abridged Pause Recordings becomes an officially registered company in Canada

Abridged Pause Recordings was officially registered under the Quebec and Canada company law today. Because of some highly questionable French laws, a French name also had to be submitted, although it will never be used. Abridged Pause Recordings is getting more professional every day!