

My Talking Pua

My Talking Pua is an Italian band that mixes dark indie rock, trip-hop and dream pop with distorted, improvisational, avant-garde/math metal. Based in Soriano nel Cimino, it was founded in the summer of 2011 by multi-instrumentalist twin brothers Andrea Basili and Marco Basili (both from Abridged Pause Recordings' roster band Kailash) and vocalist Maria Livia Nicotra.

Six songs were recorded in the fall of 2011 for a planned extended play, which will finally see the light of day through Abridged Pause Recordings in the spring of 2012. The band is already at work on five more new songs, planned for a follow-up EP, also to be released on Abridged Pause Recordings in late 2012 or early 2013.