The Payback

Tough guy metalcore was all over Quebec in the early to mid 2000s (right after that ended, our whole scene ended). The Payback is another band from that scene and genre that came from Trois-Rivière. And I wasn’t able to find much on this band, it was suggested to me by email. They released their first demo in 2003, followed by a second demo in 2004 and a promo. The only compilation they appeared on was the Quebec Punk Scene Vol. 1 in 2005. Kyril Ducharme went on to play in A Perfect Murder and now Aces & Eights.
