Vision Éternel Giveaway Package: The Winner Is Announced

On April 11th of 2018, Vision Éternel announced a giveaway contest in promotion of the band's new retrospective boxed set, "An Anthology Of Past Misfortunes". Contestants had a full month to enter the drawing by sending an email to the band with their favourite Vision Éternel t-shirt color and size. Vision Éternel, Abridged Pause Recordings and The Obelisk would like to thank all the wonderful people and fans of the band who participated in this contest.

Today, the band is proud to announce a lucky winner who will not only receive a full boxed set, which in itself holds five compact discs, one cassette, two stickers, six business card flyers and a two-page postcard insert, but in addition to that, two sold-out posters, a t-shirt and the band's entire remastered digital discography. The boxed set is autographed and personalized to the winner. A total retail value of $120, including shipping to any location worldwide. The winner gets all of this for free!

The winner is: Randy Blood! Congratulations!

But wait! There's more! The band is so appreciative of everyone who participated in the giveaway that everyone will be receiving consolation prizes. No one leaves empty-handed. All participants have been emailed a free download of Vision Éternel's entire 2017-remastered digital discography and a 15% discount code valid on any and all items at Vision Éternel's web store.

All subscribers of Vision Éternel's mailing list have also been offered a 10% discount code valid on any and all items at Vision Éternel's web store!

Not on Vision Éternel’s mailing list yet? Sign up using the form in the footer of their website and receive band news, pre-order offers, fan-exclusive material and discount codes on future Vision Éternel merch!