Vision Eternel’s 2023 Valentine’s Day Exclusive

Each year on Valentine’s Day, Vision Eternel offers either a new concept extended play, or, in lieu of one being ready, an exclusive unreleased song from its archives. Named Valentine’s Day Exclusive, this tradition has been going on since the mid-2000s.

This year, Vision Eternel is offering for free download the song Sometimes In Absence, which was recorded in 2010 during the planning stage of an abandoned full-length album (which eventually became The Last Great Torch Song, released through Abridged Pause Recordings on March 14, 2012). The song is accompanied by an ink drawing by Rain Frances at Rain Frances Art.

You can download the song here and read more about its recording session on Vision Eternel’s website.
