

Vision Eternel's For Farewell Of Nostalgia Extended Play Scheduled For Release

For Farewell Of Nostalgia, Vision Eternel's newest extended play, will be released digitally through Abridged Pause Recordings on September 14th 2020. The release will also be coming out on compact disc and compact cassette through partnering record labels.

The Compact Disc Edition will be released through American record label Somewherecold Records. It will be packaged in a four-panel eco-wallet, factory-numbered and limited to 100 copies. The CD will feature an exclusive bonus song, unavailable elsewhere. This edition will also include a booklet with a short story written by band-member Alexander Julien.

The Compact Cassette Edition will be released through Dutch record label Geertruida. It will be packaged in double-tape case with an over-sized booklet, factory-numbered and limited to 50 copies. The tape will feature an exclusive bonus song, unavailable elsewhere. This edition will also include a booklet with a short story written by band-member Alexander Julien. In addition, the Compact Cassette Edition will bundle a second tape, titled Lost Misfortunes: A Selection Of Demos And Rarities (Part Two), containing twelve exclusive b-sides, demos and alternate takes, all unavailable elsewhere.

On our end, Abridged Pause Recordings is planning a limited amount of bundle sets that will include additional exclusive material, unavailable elsewhere.

The standard Digital Edition will be jointly released through Abridged Pause Recordings, Somewherecold Records and Geertruida. Anyone purchasing a physical edition from one of the three record labels will automatically receive a free digital edition.

For Farewell Of Nostalgia was mastered by Chicago-based engineer Carl Saff at Saff Mastering. The cover art illustration was painted by California-based artist Michael Koelsch at Koelsch Studios, while the booklet art was painted by Canadian artist Rain Frances.

Vision Eternel is still looking for a record label to release For Farewell Of Nostalgia on vinyl format, so get in touch with them at info@visioneternel.com!

Vision Eternel – For Farewell Of Nostalgia